

The values of the SOC as a function of pi, for three different values of number of working spouses

(Note: The sample size is the same for all three graphs)